Web Developer

PERSONAL PROFILE

Ambitious IT student graduating with a Bachelor's degree in Web Development in January 2026. I am passionate about turning ideas into scalable, user-focused digital solutions and currently seeking a junior role within frontend development, while remaining open to backend and data-related work.

I am described as a curious, quick to learn, and proactive, consistently contributing positively to teamwork and project collaboration--as noted by my team lead at CSIS.
